

Generation 1.0 - memories of migration & settlement

Sughra Ahmed: Research Fellow

Agenda

- The importance of migration history
- Capturing the narrative
- The project
- Project participants
- Dissemination

Capturing the narrative

- Economic migration mainly & marriage
- History of the British Empire in India
- Need for workforce
- Myth of return
- Family settlement
- Intergenerational matters
- Gender experiences

The importance of migration history

- A part of who we are – the British Isles has a vibrant history of migration: Saxons, Vikings and Normans to Jewish, African Caribbean and Asians...
- Identity and belonging
- Connectivity
- Confidence
- Intergenerational learning

The project

- Oral / Visual
- Original
- Diversity
- 1st person narrative
- Film & images
- In depth/semi structured
- Venue
- Family albums
- Documentation
- Context

Project participants

- Generation 1.0
 - 1950-'79
 - Women and men
 - National
 - Diversity: ethnicity/experience
- Good health and memory
- Multi lingual
- Engineers, housewives, peddlers, bus drivers, factory workers, chefs, taxi drivers, tailors, community activists...

Dissemination

- Places of education
- Archives (libraries / MM)
- Communities
- Website

- Videos
- Context
- Images
- Timeline
- Artefacts

Thank you

